

News flash: Footballer Rohan Ince cleared by Jury

February 2017

Steven Barker, supported by paralegal, Carly Aitchison and led by Brian O'Neill QC successfully defended footballer Rohan Ince on Wednesday, 15 February 2017.

Brighton & Hove Albion footballer, Rohan Ince (who is currently on loan to Swindon Town), was cleared by a jury at Reading Crown Court on Wednesday of GBH against a Windsor night club doorman.

The former Chelsea player was accused of 'bottling' the doorman with a Jack Daniels bottle, following an incident outside the club in the early hours of Christmas Day 2015.

Rohan, who denied the attack from the outset, in what was a clear case of mistaken identity, was cleared of all charges unanimously by the jury after a short deliberation, following a three-day trial.

Steven was chosen to represent Rohan, after successfully representing a colleague at Brighton & Hove Albion a few years earlier.

View further details in the national press at:

- The BBC
- The Daily Mail
- The Mirror

If you're a football fan (or even if you're not), check out this 'wonder goal' on YouTube by Rohan for Brighton & Hove Albion against his current team Swindon Town.

Key Contacts

Steven Barker
Partner

Link to Profile
Link to vCard
020 7299 6921
steven.barker@riaabg.com

Carly Aitchison
Paralegal

Link to Profile
Link to vCard
020 7299 6919
carly.aitchison@riaabg.com

